

Accounting Analyst
Fairfax County Public Schools
(2 Positions)

Fairfax County Public Schools (FCPS), the nation's 12th largest school district and located in Northern Virginia, seeks an individual to perform the full range of professional accounting duties required to plan, organize, or conduct a variety of division-wide fiscal accounting activities involving the analysis and review of highly complex and diversified accounting information. Bachelor's degree (master's and professional certifications preferred) in accounting, business administration, or a related field, plus 5 years' progressive governmental accounting experience. Knowledge of the theory, methods, principles, processes, and practices of governmental accounting and generally accepted accounting principles. Understand the pronouncements of the governmental accounting standards board and IRS codes relevant to governmental or public finance. Skill in oral and written communications. Ability to analyze and interpret fiscal data and develop and generate reports from the data. Ability to effectively use automated financial systems. Apply online for Job #1209BR at careers.fcps.edu.